Bev Wells to Retire

After almost 37 years of service with SRS, JRS/GARS Assistant Manager Beverly Wells announced her retirement effective December 31, 2000.

Her career in State government spans 44 years, including a seven year leave of absence to raise her daughters. Bev started with SRS on June 1, 1956 as a Clerk Stenographer.

In 1972, the Judges & General Assembly Retirement Systems moved to new offices, and Bev became a full-time employee for these Systems. She stayed with JRS/GARS when they reunited with SRS in 1989, and became the JRS/GARS Assistant Manager on November 1, 1989 until the present.

Bev has worked for all four SRS Executive Secretaries over the course of her career. She has many fond memories of her work with the judges and legislators in the state saying "they are the greatest people to work for."

We will miss her pleasant personality and unselfishness in helping our members and our staff. We wish her the best of luck in a well-deserved retirement!

JRS Military Service Purchase

A State appeals court upheld the policy of allowing judges to purchase military service as credit under the Judges' Retirement System.

In the case of Lieb vs. JRS, the Court upheld and then declined to reconsider the policy of allowing a JRS member to purchase up to two years of credit for time served on active duty.

This decision does not prevent judges from purchasing military service credit for time served prior to taking the bench.

Understanding Your Statement

Enclosed with this copy of The Panel is your annual benefit statement for the year ending June 30, 2000. It reflects a salary increase effective July 1, 2000.

If you have questions about your statement, call us at 217/782-8500.

In this article we highlight areas of the statement where members have the most questions.

If you do not agree with the service shown on your statement, contact the JRS at 217-782-8500.

If you are establishing service credit, it will not be shown on your statement until it is paid in full.

Retirement benefits are estimated using your salary on July 1.

Reciprocal service is shown two different ways:

- Active is current service.
- Inactive is refunded service.

Legislative Report

The legislature passed, and Governor Ryan signed House Bill #1583, effective July 6. This legislation alters the JRS survivor benefit by allowing the surviving spouse to remarry and still be eligible for the benefit. Prior law required the termination of benefits if remarriage occurred prior to age 50.

Important Insurance Changes

There has been a significant change in the pre-certification for members who are enrolled in Medicare as their primary insurance. In the past we advised our Medicare primary members that there was no need to pre-certify for outpatient surgery or hospital admission.

Starting July 1 2000, pre-certification is required for all members enrolled in the Quality Care Health Plan. The toll-free number to pre-certify is 800-327-7443. This number also appears on your Quality Care identification card.

Effective April 10, 2000, UNICARE, the administrator for the Quality Care Health Plan started offering Medicare Crossover, an automated claims processing service for Medicare Part B claims. This service applies to Medicare primary members and dependents enrolled in the Quality Care Health Plan.

Claims are submitted to Medicare by your health care provider, then Medicare forwards your claim to UNICARE for payment, eliminating the need for you or the provider to file separate claims with UNICARE.

There is no charge for this service, but you must enroll with UNICARE to participate. We encourage all members enrolled in Medicare Part B to sign up for this program by calling UNICARE at 1-888-659-2273. If you have questions, call us at 217-782-8500.

The survivor benefit payable to a spouse is 66 2/3 of the earned benefit, or 7 1/2% of your final salary, whichever is greater.

Your named JRS beneficiaries are separate from your Group Life Insurance beneficiaries. The people listed on your Benefit Statement are designated to receive your JRS benefits only.

You may change your beneficiaries at any time by filling out a Nomination of Beneficiaries form on the next page.
